

Primary Prevention

Refers to work that is aimed at preventing violence before it happens and targets the whole population, but particularly children & young people.

Secondary Prevention

Targets women, children & young people who have experienced Domestic Abuse and men who use violence. This would include safety planning with women, children & young people and intervention programmes for abusive men.